

The Industrial Technology Centre is looking for an

ENGINEER-IN-TRAINING

to join our growing team!

Core responsibilities and duties:

- Perform mechanical testing of material and product provided by clients
- Design fixtures, setups, and test procedures based on good engineering practices
- Obtain data through various instruments, including pressure gauges, load cells, and sound level meters
- Operate test equipment, record measurements, and report findings to clients
- Provide technical support to other departments in the organization, including a calibration laboratory
- Assist with the maintenance of ITC's ISO quality accreditations, including being involved in internal and external audits
- Research, develop, and implement continuous improvement initiatives
- Operate overhead crane and forklift

Education, experience, and skills:

- 1-3 years of experience in an Engineering environment (can include co-op or internships)
- Recent graduate of an accredited University, majoring in Mechanical Engineering
- Good understanding of materials, mechanical system fundamentals, and electrical signal fundamentals
- Good analytical, organizational, and problem-solving capabilities
- Mechanical aptitude
- Proficient with MS Office 365 (Word, Outlook, and Excel)

Resumes can be sent to careers@itc.mb.ca with ENGINEER-IN-TRAINING in the subject line

The Industrial Technology Centre is located at:

78 Innovation Drive, Unit 200 Winnipeg, MB R3T 6C2

This job posting, and many others, can be found at itc.mb.ca/careers.

Closing Date: July 29, 2022